

Figure S8: Flowchart detailing the logic used to determine column locations for all combinations and permutations of barriers when the upwind building recirculation covers the entire street cross-section