

The notation ApA, ApC, ApT etc... denotes a 'nearest neighbour' step or dinucleotide in DNA in the 5' to 3' orientation, along the phosphate backbone. It is given/used as a biochemical distinction between a variety of different possible doublets.