

Figure S6: Predicted protein-protein interactions among the 144 GWAS candidate genes' products. The GWAS gene candidates showed enriched protein-protein interactions, specifically, they were predicted to be connected in six clusters of more than three proteins. Each cluster is connected through the lines of different thickness, that represent the strength of evidence of functional connection between genes. Color of each gene have not been changed from the STRING database output.

