

Psychometric Evaluation of the Krogh-Poulsen Test for the Diagnosis of the Temporomandibular Disorders

Table S1. Krogh Poulsen Test.

Signs and Symptoms	Yes	No
I. Mouth opening under 40 mm
II. Deviation in mandibular movement during opening or closing
III. Discomfort at masticatory muscles palpation
IV. Pain at pressing temporomandibular joint
V. Clicks or crackles during joint movement
VI. Obstacles or blockages while joint movement
VII. Centric relation and intercuspation
VIII. Anterior displacement over 1 mm at retrusion from maximum intercuspation
IX. Lateral displacement over 1 mm at retrusion

Unaffected _____ No positive aspect
 Disturbance _____ One positive aspect
 Risk _____ Two positive aspects
 Dysfunction _____ Three positive aspects
 Items 6 or 9 positive (them are decisive)