

Figure S1. (A) The box plot shows a comparison of contact angles between the dorsal and ventral eyes of D. mellyi. The difference between the contact angles between regions of the compound eyes was insignificant. (B) Representative photos of water droplets on the surface of dorsal eyes and ventral eyes respectively.