

Consumers' Willingness to Pay for Cabbage with Minimized Pesticide Residues in Southern Benin

Table S1.1. House types.

House Status	Wall	Roof	Floor	Bath Place	Toilets
Poor quality	Local material or brick ± any improvement but not tiled.	not paved	Cemented at most	Annex without roof	Poor quality
Improved quality	With brick, Roughcast ± painted	corrugated iron/tile covered	Cemented or tiled	Dependent	Improved quality
Modern	With brick, Roughcast painted inside and tiled or not outside	corrugated iron/tile covered or paved	Cemented or tiled	Dependent	Modern

Table S1.2. Assets and wealth classifications.

Wealth class	Means of transport	Means of fresh food preserving	Total annual income (FCFA)
Poor class	At most one small motorbike	Unavailable	≤380.000
Middle class	At most a small and second hand car	At most a refrigerator	380.000–1200.000
High class	At least a well maintained car	At least a refrigerator	>1.200.000

Note: € 1 = FCFA 656.

Table S1.3. Consumers' wealth classes.

Wealth class	House status	Transport means	Fresh foods preserving means
Poor	Poor quality	Poor class	Poor class
Middle	Improved quality	Middle class	Middle class
Rich	Modern	High class	High class