

Figure S4. Protein coverage distribution map in liver (A) and brain (B). The abscissa indicates the protein coverage interval (the length of protein that covered by detected peptide/full-length the protein) and the ordinate is the protein number in each interval.