

Figure S1: Growth of bacterial isolates in LB media supplemented with different concentration of polyethylene glycol (PEG) stress (0%, 5%, 10% and 15%) for 4 days. The growth were examined by using spectrophotometer at 600 nm. Each date point is the mean of three replicate while bars shows standard error.

