

Figure S4. Measurements for experiments with the original and enhanced asparagine feed. Biomass, titer, glucose and lactate concentrations were measured for cultivations with the original asparagine content in the feed and an enhanced asparagine content in the feed for 12 days.