Message from the Guest Editors

The aim of this Special Issue is to bring together international experts to provide a comprehensive overview of and recent advances in the dynamic research field of “Non-Coding RNA as a Promising Biomarker for Disease Diagnosis and Prognosis”. Therefore, we invite you to participate with either an original article or a review focused on the following and other aspects:

1. Non-coding RNA identification and detection;
2. Molecular diagnosis of cancer and complex disease;
3. Prognosis markers for infectious disease;
4. Bioinformatics and experimental approaches targeting the network interactome;
5. Delivery and therapeutic methods
