Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

The trophoblast and cancer cells share many capacities such as cell proliferation, invasion and fusion, modulation of immune response, angiogenesis and many signalling and biochemical pathways, suggesting thus that trophoblast may serve as an ideal model for the study of malignancy or vice-versa.

This special issue is devoted to original basic, translational or clinical research or review articles that focus on angiogenesis, invasion, cell fusion and immune system modulation in gynaecological tumor and/or placenta development. It could be of interest to a broad range of readers including physicians, scientists, students, and biology of reproduction communities.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Biomedicines (ISSN 2227-9059) is an open access journal devoted to all aspects of research on human health and disease, the discovery and characterization of new therapeutic targets, therapeutic strategies, and research of naturally driven biomedicines, pharmaceuticals, and biopharmaceutical products. Topics include pathogenesis mechanisms of diseases, translational medical research, biomaterial in biomedical research, natural bioactive molecules, biologics, vaccines, gene therapies, cell-based therapies, targeted specific antibodies, recombinant therapeutic proteins, nanobiotechnology driven products, targeted therapy, bioimaging, biosensors, biomarkers, and biosimilars. The journal is open for publication of studies conducted at the basic science and preclinical research levels. We invite you to consider submitting your work to Biomedicines, be it original research, review articles, or developing Special Issues of current key topics.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE \(Web of Science\), PubMed, PMC, CAPUS / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Pharmacology & Pharmacy) / CiteScore - Q2 (Medicine (miscellaneous))
