Message from the Guest Editor

We are excited to invite you to contribute to this Special Issue, which is the second edition of "Involvement of RNA Polymerases I and III in Cancer Progression" (https://www.mdpi.com/journal/cancers/special_issues/RNAIAll).

This Special Issue aims to consider the involvement of pols I and III in cancer initiation, progression, and maintenance, including the roles of their individual ncRNA products. Related topics of interest include the molecular mechanisms responsible for the aberrant function of pols I and III in tumours and the potential of targeting these essential enzymes for therapeutic intervention.

Cancers is an international online journal addressing both clinical and basic science issues related to cancer research. The journal is publishing in Open Access format, which will certainly evolve to ensure that the journal takes full advantage of the rapidly changing world of information and knowledge dissemination. It publishes high-quality clinical, translational, and basic science research on cancer prevention, initiation, progression, and treatment, as well as other related topics, particularly to capture the most seminal studies in the rapidly growing area of immunology, immunotherapy, and tumor microenvironment.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, Embase, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Oncology) / CiteScore - Q1 (Oncology)
