

C Journal of
Carbon Research

Dear Colleagues,

As Editor-in-Chief of C, I am pleased to announce the winner of the 2018 C Travel Award:

The 2018 C Travel Award was granted to Dr. Xiangcheng Sun, postdoctoral research fellow at Cornell University, USA, who works in the field of Chemical Engineering. His current research centers on the preparation and application of a series of fluorescent materials spanning from polymer doped fluorophore, to fluorescent carbon dots, to small fluorescent molecules.

We congratulate him on his excellent work and would further like to thank all applicants for their interesting and high quality contributions. We also wish to thank the Selection Committee members Drs. Enrico Andreoli, Teresa Álvarez Centeno, Jean-François Morin, and Jandro L. Abot for their evaluation of candidates.

Dr. Craig E. Banks
Editor-in-Chief
