Dear Colleagues,

As the Editor-in-Chief of Electronics, it is my pleasure to announce the winner of the Electronics 2021 Best PhD Thesis Award. This prize was aimed to be awarded to a PhD student who has produced a highly anticipated academic potential thesis.

The award has been granted to:

“Low Dose Analytical Electron Microscopy of Hybrid Perovskite Photovoltaic Devices”

By Felix Utama Kosasih, University of Cambridge, UK

2021 BEST PHD THESIS AWARD

WINNER

The winner will receive CHF 800, a certificate, and an offer to publish a featured paper in Electronics with the article processing charge (APC) waived before the end of 2022.

On behalf of the evaluation committee, I would like to congratulate the winner on his accomplishments. We would also like to take this opportunity to thank all the nominated research groups of the above exceptional thesis for their contributions to Electronics, and thank the award committee for voting and helping with this award.

Prof. Dr. Flavio Canavero
