2019 FORESTS TRAVEL AWARDS WINNERS

Dear Colleagues,

As Editor-in-Chief of Forests, I am pleased to announce the two awardees for the 2019 Forests Graduate Student/Post-Doc Travel Awards.

Dr. Evgenios Agathokleous is a PhD in Environmental Resources from the Hokkaido Research Center, Forestry and Forest Products Institute, Japan. His current research focus is the monitoring and modeling of forest health in a changing world.

Mr. Mizanur Rahman is a PhD candidate from the Institute of Geography, Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Nuremberg, Bavaria, Germany. His current research focus is understanding the long-term growth and physiological responses of South Asian moist forest trees to global environmental changes and their implications for the global carbon and hydrological cycles.

We had many impressive applicants for this award, and we congratulate our two recipients. We have announced the winners on our website; please check it at the following link: <http://www.mdpi.com/journal/forests/awards>
