Message from the Guest Editor

This special issue, entitled “Reducing Health Disparities and Promoting Healthy Youth, Families, and Communities” invites a wide range of submissions that address environmental health disparities. This includes quantitative and qualitative research, research that documents the processes underlying health disparities, research that develops and tests interventions to reduce health disparities, research that uses and develops community-engaged research methods, and research that is methodological in nature.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Discovery and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a scientific basis for decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards. IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality, peer-reviewed, open access journal.
