

International Journal of Molecular Sciences

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to announce the three winners of the IJMS 2020 Travel Awards:

Dr. Mario Gutiérrez Tovar, a senior postdoctoral research fellow at the Multifunctional Materials & Composites (MMC) Laboratory, Department of Engineering Science, University of Oxford, UK.

Dr. Gloria Ravegnini, a senior postdoctoral research fellow at Laboratory of Pharmacogenetics and Pharmacogenomics, Department of Pharmacy and Biotechnology, University of Bologna, Italy.

Dr. Joanna Kujawa, an assistant Professor at Faculty of Chemistry, Nicolaus Copernicus University in Torun, Poland.

2020 TRAVEL AWARD WINNERS

Each Travel Award consists of a certificate and 800 CHF to attend an academic conference of their choice in 2020. Congratulations to the winners of this highly competitive travel award.

We would like to thank all the Scientific Committee members for their assiduous evaluation of the candidates, and all the applicants for submitting their diverse and fascinating range of research topics.

The 2021 IJMS Travel Awards will be open for applications at the end of 2020. Please check <https://www.mdpi.com/journal/ijms/awards> for more information closer to that time.
