Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue aims to provide a comprehensive overview of the latest advancements, emerging trends and unresolved challenges in the field of thoracic surgery. In this Special Issue, we invite submissions that address various topics related to thoracic surgery, including, but not limited to, minimally invasive techniques, robotic-assisted surgeries, lung cancer management, esophageal disorders, mediastinal tumors, pleural diseases, thoracic trauma, lung transplantation, lung segmentectomies, pneumothorax, 3D printing, surgical planification and artificial intelligence. We encourage original research articles, review papers and perspectives that explore novel approaches, innovative technologies and evidence-based practices in thoracic surgery.

We welcome contributions from researchers, surgeons and healthcare professionals working in the field of thoracic surgery. Manuscripts should adhere to the scope of clinical research and provide valuable insights into the advancements, challenges and future directions of thoracic surgery.
