

Dear Colleagues,

As Editor-in-Chief of Journal of Imaging, on behalf of the Evaluation Committee, I am pleased to announce that the winner of the Journal of Imaging 2018 Travel Award is Mr. Aviad Levis, a PhD student at the Israel Institute of Technology, Haifa, Israel, who will be supported with 800 Swiss Francs towards his travel expenses to attend IEEE 2018 Conference on Computer Vision and Pattern Recognition (CVPR), to be held in Salt Lake City, USA, 18-22 June 2018.

Mr. Aviad Levis is a PhD candidate at Viterbi Faculty of Electrical Engineering, Technion—Israel Institute of Technology, Haifa, Israel. His research is in 3D imaging, computer vision, and microscopy. Mr. Levis has been invited to give talks in international conferences, sometimes as a sole author. His paper “Statistical Tomography of Microscopic Life” has been accepted to the IEEE 2018 Conf. on Computer Vision and Pattern Recognition (CVPR).

2018 TRAVEL AWARD WINNER

This was a difficult decision with such high quality applications for the award, and we would like to thank all applicants for submitting their diverse and thought-provoking presentations.
