Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Precision medicine is set to be the next generation of healthcare research and is an innovative approach to providing decisions about disease prevention, diagnostics, and treatment that takes into account differences in people's genes, environments, and lifestyles. The goal of this Special Issue "Hepatitis in Precision Medicine" is to target the best prevention, diagnostics, and treatment for each hepatitis patient. If possible, I would appreciate receiving your submission by 1 July 2023. If you already have a manuscript ready for publication, I would appreciate your submission at your earliest convenience.

Looking forward to your response.
