Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue welcomes scholarly contributions in the field of fintech. Any papers that study the causes and consequences of fintech on a broad range of issues, including firms, households, individuals, stock markets and other financial instruments will be considered. The analysis could be at any level, including, but not limited to, individual, household, firms and businesses, regional, and country level. Studies relating to information technology investment, technological spillovers, financial innovation, blockchain technology in the financial services, innovation-led growth, economics of technology, and risk are welcome.
