Dear Colleagues,

As Editor-in-Chief of Life, I am pleased to announce the winner of the Life Travel Award 2019:

Pol Arranz-Gibert, Post-doctoral fellow at Yale University, whose research focuses on the expansion of the genetic code to facilitate the incorporation of nonstandard amino acids into proteins. He is planning to present his work “Ribosome Evolution for the Incorporation of Non-Standard Monomers”. The award consists of 800 Swiss Francs to attend an academic conference of his choice in 2019.

2019 LIFE TRAVEL AWARD WINNER

We would like to thank all the applicants for submitting their fascinating and diverse range of research topics.

Dr. Ulrich Muller
Editor-in-Chief

Life (ISSN 2075-1729) is an international, peer-reviewed open access journal of scientific studies related to fundamental themes in life sciences, especially those concerned with the origins of life and evolution of biosystems, synthetic biology and astrobiology, and it is published quarterly online by MDPI.

The competition for the Life Travel Award 2020 will be opened at the end of 2019. Please check <http://www.mdpi.com/journal/life> for more information closer to this date.
