Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to announce that the following reviewers (in alphabetical order by surname) have been selected as the winners of the Materials 2020 Outstanding Reviewer Awards in appreciation of the high number, timeliness, and quality of their reviews in 2020. Each winner will receive a certificate, CHF 500 and a CHF 1000 voucher for one paper published in Materials within one year.

2020 OUTSTANDING REVIEWER AWARDS WINNERS

Fábio Fernandes, University of Aveiro, Portugal.
Mohannad Z. Naser, Clemson University, USA.
Miguel Ángel Sanjuán, Technical University of Madrid, Spain.
Mirosław Szala, Lublin University of Technology, Poland.

Congratulations to all of the winners for their excellent reviews. The Materials Editorial Board and Editorial Team would like to acknowledge all reviewers who have generously dedicated their time and efforts toward reviewing manuscripts submitted to Materials. Due to their outstanding contributions, the high scientific quality of the journal and fast article processing are constantly maintained.

Kind regards,
Materials Editorial Office
