Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

The XII Congress of the Spanish Society for Community Nutrition (SENC), “NUTRIMAD 2018”, will be held jointly with the IV World Congress of Public Health and Nutrition from the 24–27 October 2018 in Madrid (Spain). The national and international Congresses fall under the scope of “A Global View of Food and Community Nutrition-NUTRIMAD 2018”.

NUTRIMAD 2018 will be a high-level scientific Congress, and it will ensure that Madrid will become the world capital of community nutrition and public health during that time. To fulfil our objectives, plenary sessions, panel sessions, and symposia will be held, as well as workshops and courses, both before and during the Congress.

The contributions for this Special Issue derived from NUTRIMAD 2018 will be in terms of by invitation only and will reflect the different topics and discussions to be covered in the Congress.
