

pharmaceutics

We are pleased to announce the two winners of the Pharmaceutics Travel Awards 2020:

Dr. Wei Li is a postdoctoral researcher from the Faculty of Pharmacy, University of Helsinki, Finland. His research focuses on the development of nano/micro-particles with ultrahigh drug loading for controlled drug delivery.

Ms. Andreia Almeida is a PhD student at the Instituto de Ciências Biomédicas Abel Salazar (ICBAS) and Instituto de Investigação e Inovação em Saúde (i3S), University of Porto, Portugal. Her PhD research is based on the production of mucoadhesive camptothecin polymeric micelles as nanodelivery systems for oral chemotherapy to treat colorectal cancer.

2020 TRAVEL AWARD WINNERS

Each Travel Award consists of a certificate and 800 CHF for the recipient to attend an academic conference of their choice in 2020. Congratulations to the winners of this highly competitive travel award.

We would like to thank all sixteen Scientific Committee members for their assiduous evaluation of the candidates, and all the applicants for submitting their fascinating research on a diverse range of topics.

The 2020 Young Investigator Award is open for nominations and the 2021 Pharmaceutics Travel Awards will be open for applications at the beginning of 2021. Please check <https://www.mdpi.com/journal/pharmaceutics/awards> for more information.
