

an Open Access Journal by MDPI

Publishing Research Internationally: Multilingual Perspectives from Research and Practice

Guest Editors:

Dr. Margaret Cargill

School of Agriculture, Food and Wine, University of Adelaide, South Australia 5005 Australia

Dr. Sally Burgess

Departamento de Filología inglesa y alemana, Universidad de La Laguna, Tenerife, 38071 Spain

Dr. Birna Arnbjörnsdóttir

Faculty of Languages and Cultures, School of Humanities, University of Iceland, 101, Reykjavik, Iceland

Deadline for manuscript submissions:

closed (21 December 2018)

Message from the Guest Editors

We warmly invite your submissions to this Special Issue of Publications, which will showcase selected contributions to the fourth PRISEAL Conference—Publishing and Presenting Research Internationally: Issues for Speakers of English as an Additional Language, plus additional papers that contribute substantially to the conference themes.

Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- academic publishing issues (e.g., advantages and limitations of open-access vs. commercial publishers; predatory journals and publishers)
- the geopolitics of academic writing (e.g., dominance of English, epistemicide, English as a Lingua Franca)
- academic ethics from a cross-cultural perspective (e.g., plagiarism and academic integrity)
- the process of writing for publication
- translation and editing in the academic context
- assessing and teaching English for research and publication purposes
- peer-review in intercultural and multilingual contexts

In terms of the genre, contributions can be think-pieces, theoretical discussions, research reports with empirical data, or reviews of relevant literature that lead to new insights for the field.

mdpi.com/si/16658