Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Of particular interest are original research papers that explore the following topics:

- The self-perception, mission and identity of Catholic education;
- Catholic education since Vatican II: developments and emphases;
- Have secular states a legal and/or moral duty to provide for faith-based education?
- Secularist challenges to Catholic education;
- New approaches to encouraging religious literacy among teachers and managers in Catholic schools;
- Developing and maintaining spiritual capital in Catholic schools and universities;
- Catholic approaches to and curricular developments in mental health, mindfulness, wellbeing and resilience education;
- Catholic sources for and policy responses to inclusion, diversity and equality policies in education;
- Innovative approaches to teaching the Christian virtues in secular and multicultural contexts;
- Distinctively Catholic perspectives on ecological education that challenge the ‘technocratic paradigm’;
- Catholic education and contemporary biblical scholarship
