Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

We invite you to contribute to what we hope will be a groundbreaking volume on global goddess cultures. True to the spirit of the religious studies tradition in which we are both trained, we envision the papers in this volume as combining breadth in perspective with depth of understanding. We aspire for methodological and theoretical diversity grounded in critical thought that is neither reductionistic nor blinded by faith. Who and what is a ‘goddess’? The answers to this question take one down a deep, fertile cosmic rabbit hole. This call is an invitation to join us in that hole.

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community - disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
