Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues:

Air quality, transportation infrastructure, and the level of recreation in public areas are a few factors that affect the quality of life. There are numerous potential methods to improve these aspects because of digitization. Additionally, digital transformation aids in addressing issues such as climate change that have an impact on society as a whole. How can cities become more digitally advanced and smarter?

In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Sustainable IoT for a sustainable society;
- Environmental issues in IoT-based solutions;
- Internet of Everything for sustainable and smart cities;
- Security, privacy, and trust models for sustainable internet of things;
- 5G-empowered IoT solutions for sustainable development;
- Artificial Intelligence solutions for IoT-based smart and sustainable cities;
- Performance, scalability, reliability, and efficiency of IoT-based sustainable society solutions;
- Testbeds and validation.
