Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue invites articles that promote research on resilience, sustainability, and/or human factors. Since emerging, contemporary, and smart technologies (including digital twins, AI, smart materials), which are energy-efficient yet computationally powerful, enable Industry 5.0, studies on the adoption and development of such technologies are invited. Submissions on the following topics are encouraged: the application of emerging technologies, e.g., digital twins for the realization of Industry 5.0; resilient infrastructure; systems research for the development of human-centric businesses and industries; resource-efficient and green technologies; smart manufacturing; systems for product life-cycle management; systemic circularity assessment; strategic and proactive engineering; sustainable business models and manufacturing systems; and systemic risk management. ## Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Systems is a leading venue for the quick and global dissemination of results of cutting-edge research in various areas of systems science and systems-related fields. An increasing number of researchers are realizing the enormous potential of systems thinking in managing the many unprecedented and complex issues in all areas of need. The Systems journal provides a home of exceptional quality for the manuscripts of these researchers who often find it difficult to publish their work in conventional discipline focused journals.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SSCI (Web of Science), dblp, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Social Sciences, Interdisciplinary) / CiteScore - Q2 (Modeling and Simulation)
