Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Responsible prosperity is underpinned by sustained access to resources.

Resources, publishes excellent science and scholarship which transforms understanding, practices and policies for conserving all natural resources – from water, land and air; to plant and animal biodiversity; to minerals and energy and their interconnection across scales. Significantly, we invite high quality submissions from natural and social sciences.

Build impact from your research by submitting to Resources, an open-access journal connecting you with data, insights, ideas and evidence needed to shape a better world.

Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Dr. Damien Giurco

Aims

Resources (ISSN 2079-9276) is an international, scholarly open access journal on the topic of natural resources. It publishes reviews, regular research papers, communications and short notes, and there is no restriction on the maximum length of the papers. Our aim is to encourage scientists to publish their research in as much detail as possible, whether theoretical, empirical or experimental. Full details regarding methods must be provided so that findings can be reproduced.

Scope

- Natural resources
- Mineral and geo-resources
- Land and ecological resources
- Plant and animal resources
- Water resources
- Energy resources
